

CORRY BAZLEY

Corry Bazley is Head of OTC Financial Sales overseeing all sales and marketing for ICE's U.S. fixed income offerings. Ms. Bazley joined ICE in August 2008.

In her previous role at Creditex, which was acquired by ICE in 2008, Bazley held a senior sales and marketing role supporting CDS technology solutions for trade execution, affirmation and compression. Bazley also played an instrumental role in the company's U.S. dealer-to-dealer portfolio compression initiative. Prior to joining Creditex, Bazley marketed an interdealer broker trading platform at CreditTrade, which was acquired by Creditex in 2006. Prior to joining CreditTrade in 2005, Bazley held various roles delivering project based solutions to financial services firms.

Bazley earned a Bachelor of Commerce degree from Queen's University in Kingston, Ontario.

CAROLE BOVARD

Carole Bovard has served as First Vice President of The Options Clearing Corporation since March 2012. Bovard served for 9 years as Partner and General Counsel for Lind-Waldock & Company and has served as the General Counsel to several entities involved in the futures brokerage and private equity business as well as counsel to several businesses involved in healthcare and education.

In addition, Bovard has provided independent consulting services to the Commodity Futures Trading Commission Division of Enforcement and serves as an arbitrator and mediator for the National Futures Association and an advocate for special needs children.

Bovard began her career with the CBOE as a Market Surveillance Analyst and next as an Investigator at the CME. Bovard B.S. in Education from Michigan State University, a J.D. from IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law, and holds Mediation, CECM and CCEP certifications.

MARISA COLEMAN

Marisa Coleman is the Head of Sales at Nadex, a binary option exchange that offers limited risk trading options to the retail investor. Coleman started with the company in 2009 in the Sales team.

Prior to this, Coleman was a Forex Broker at GFT (Global Forex Trading). Coleman has been in the industry for 8 years and become an expert in binaries, options, and forex.

Coleman's passion is to bring out the best in others by highlighting their strengths. Coleman has been a member of WILD since 2011, and has been a WILD mentor for 2 years. This is Coleman's first term on the WILD Board. Coleman additionally serves on the Executive Committee as Treasurer.

STEPHANIE HAAS

Stephanie Haas is a Sales Operations Analyst at Orc Group, an ISV in electronic trading technology for listed derivatives.

Haas graduated in International Finance and previously lived in France before returning to Chicago.

Haas is an active WILD member and enjoys golfing, traveling and volunteering for local non-profits. Haas is very excited to work together with the Events Committee in 2016.

NANCY KAPLAN

Nancy Kaplan is an exchange traded derivatives executive with broad expertise in market creation in the futures and options space. Kaplan has revisited an early career passion and is trading options.

Most recently, Kaplan was SVP, US Market Development at NYSE Liffe US / NYSE Liffe (futures divisions of the New York Stock Exchange), successfully managing Chicago trading community volume and revenue growth across NYSE Liffe and NYSE Liffe US. Previously, Kaplan held a number of strategic, product and market development positions in the derivatives industry. Kaplan also was an Adjunct Professor at University of Illinois Chicago and Assistant Professor at Lake Forest College, Economics Department.

Kaplan received her MBA in Financial Management and Accounting from the University of Chicago, Booth Graduate School of Business, as well as a BS in Finance and Business Administration from the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign.

This is Kaplan's second term on the WILD Board. Kaplan has served on the WILD Executive Committee for the past three years as Treasurer.

JENNIFER M. O'ROURKE

Jennifer O'Rourke is a committed and analytical business development professional skilled in initiating and managing relationships at senior levels including government officials and C-level corporate heads with over 8 years of experience in key roles throughout the derivatives industry.

O'Rourke serves as the Assistant Deputy Director of the Office of Entrepreneurship, Innovation & Technology at the Illinois Department of Commerce where she leads projects focusing on economic development throughout the state of Illinois.

Prior to this, O'Rourke held a number of strategic and market development positions in the derivatives industry. Most recently, O'Rourke was with CME Group, serving as a Manager of Global Business Development where she was responsible for expanding CME Group's presence in the Middle East, Africa and Asia, including initiating customer relationships and developing partnerships with regional exchanges.

O'Rourke attended the University of London where she received a Masters of Arts and the University of Illinois where she received a Bachelor of Arts. This is O'Rourke's first term on the WILD Board. O'Rourke additionally serves on the Executive Committee as Secretary.

DIANE SAUCIER

Diane Saucier is an independent derivatives market consultant with over 20 years' experience in key roles within leading financial institutions and industry vendors, including 10 years with Trading Technologies, advancing their business across multiple geographies and asset classes. Saucier focuses on product strategy, business development, regulatory policy, market structure and risk management.

Saucier also serves on the Board of Directors and as Treasurer of the FIA's Market Technology Division and co-chairs their Events and Communications Committee. Saucier is a frequent speaker and published author and holds a Bachelor's degree in Economics and Political Science from Northwestern University.

This is Saucier's second term on the WILD Board. Saucier served on the WILD Executive Committee for three years as Vice President and currently serves as President.

LISA M. STERBA

Lisa Sterba is the Compliance Director for Ethics and Compliance – Integrated Supply & Trading Global Oil Americas at BP.

Prior to this role she was Vice President of Regulatory Affairs within the North American Gas & Power Unit for BP in Houston. Sterba joined BP in 2006 where she was instrumental in building BP's Trading Compliance Program. Prior to BP, Sterba worked for a variety of companies with a focus on energy supply, delivery and trading. Sterba's career includes regulatory advocacy, developing and recommending hedging strategies for power plants, preparing and testifying in rate hearings, modeling energy assets, developing customized derivative products for customers and building systems to support complex trading strategies.

Sterba graduated from Creighton University, Omaha, Nebraska with a B.S. in Business Administration, Management Information Systems.

This is Sterba's first term on the WILD Board.

Board of Directors 2016

LESLIE SUTPHEN

Leslie Sutphen consults on market structure, risk management, and business approaches for the derivatives industry.

Sutphen recently was Head of Strategy and Implementation at proprietary trading firm Chopper Trading LLC. Prior to this, Sutphen served as Global Head of eSolutions Strategy and Implementation for Newedge Group. Sutphen has held various management and consulting roles in the futures and options industry.

Sutphen holds a Masters of Management in Finance and Marketing from Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management and an AB magna cum laude from Mount Holyoke College in Massachusetts.

Sutphen is also past president and a member of the board of the Futures Industry Association's Information Technology Division and a founding member of WILD – Women in Listed Derivatives. Sutphen additionally serves on the Executive Committee as Vice-President.